SKAGWAY AS FREE PORT IS INDUCEMENT

Roosevelt Is Reported As Very Receptive On Vast Proposal

WASHINGTON, June 21.—President Roosevelt today was reported as "very receptive" to a plan to make part of British Columbia and the Yukon into an international park, and Skagway, Alaska, a free port.

Under the project envisioned by Senator Lewis B. Swannell, of Washington, and Delegate Anthony J. Bonfante, of Alaska, the section of Canada dipping southward toward Skagway, Alaska, from the coast of Alaska, would be made into the "world's first international park."

For months the two have been considering the scheme to obtain Canadian sufficient to provide an "inside route" for United States firms between Skagway and the Yukon.

At present aviation must fly over Canada, which involves international law, or skirt the rugged, glacier-bound coast—a hazardous undertaking in winter.

ACCESS FOR BOTH

They explained by making the links of a road an international playground citizens of the United States as well as Canada would have access and could travel without customs restrictions. The Canadian government, in return, would permit the United States to use the road for military purposes, and to permit the United States to use the road for military purposes.

OCEAN PLANE MAY HOP ON TEST THURSDAY

Mammoth Machine, 45,000 Pounds, Can Leave Water In 30 Seconds

LONDON, June 21.—An empire flying boat of Imperial Airways, built of all the latest conveniences, is being tested tomorrow. It will be installed, it is being groomed at the moment for the first flight which is expected to take place this week, possibly Thursday.

The huge monoplane, one of the 25 new boats built for Imperial Airways, will start from Poynton, near London, and fly to Poynton, Newfoundland and Montreal.

No passengers will be carried on the initial flight. Real regulations are laid down for the passage, for London and Ottawa, and for the regular air service across the Atlantic.

Imperial Airways are saying little and claiming less. They are not sure of the opinion of the public, but the flight, now when the test flight will take place. The crew will have no passengers, but the most expert and experienced pilots, engineers and navigators will be selected and from the data collected on the test flight, plans will be made for the future.

PROVE SAFETY

Only the pilots, engineers and navigators will be allowed on the smaller test flights which are being carried out at Southampton. The Trans-Atlantic planes will not carry a single passenger of any kind until the test flight is over.

Imperial Airways have proven the passage is safe and can be maintained as a regular service.

Two of these new empire aircraft have been definitely ordered by Trans-Atlantic experimental work. They have extra fuel tanks and most fully loaded with their large reserves of gasoline they will weigh 45,000 pounds. Yet the design is such that they can get off the water in 30 seconds.

10-FOOT SPAN

The Trans-Atlantic boats have a span of 114 feet, a wing spread of 100 feet, and a length of 100 feet. They are built of steel and will fly a top speed to the machines of 200 miles an hour.

DOUBLE DECK

A new development is the double decker. It has two decks, one for passengers, and contains four saloons, including a smoker. The chairs can be adjusted to a reclining position, and the lower deck has also provided with view windows and a model kitchen. Sleeping berths can be made up for 16 passengers.

Double Tragedy Revealed When Man's Body Is Also Found

DUCK LAKE, Sask. June 21.—Police said today a four-year-old boy was found later in a dump of junk. The boy was the slaying of his mother, Emelia Hicks, 22.

"Daddy shot Mummy," they quoted the boy as saying. Mervin Hicks, 28, was found later in a dump of junk. The boy was the slaying of his mother, Emelia Hicks, 22.

Hicks was employed as a farm laborer at this town 35 miles south of Prince Albert. Police said Mrs. Hicks was riding in a hayrack with her son and her sister, Laura Paradis, and John Anderson, when Hicks drove up in his automobile.

They reported Hicks made threats and Anderson and Laura Paradis ran for help to a nearby farmhouse. A few minutes later the driven horse arrived at the farm with the hayrack carrying the child and the body of Mrs. Hicks.

Jasper's Golf Links Is All Manicured Up Like Hollywood Star

Special To The Bulletin

JASPER PARK LODGE, June 21.—For more than fifteen years the golfers of this and many other courses have been enjoying their daily rounds over the Lodge course, but never since the course was built has it appeared in such fine condition at this time of year as it does today.

As a matter of fact the course is in playing condition now that it has been at its best in some previous years.

Greenskeeper W. H. "Bill" Brinkworth is justly proud of long lines of hard work. Every fairway is perfectly mowed, and every green is as true as it is possible to get them. The turf has matted beautifully and is a true putting surface.

One of the big improvements will be noted on the new 18th green which was replaced with the new grass last fall. The character of the hole was of Mrs. Allen, who is now at the hotel.

Memorial day riot at Republic
Steel's Chicago plant.

MEETING TODAY
A move for peace was begun at Cleveland, where President Roosevelt's Federal Industrial Board, headed by Charles P. Taft II, prepared to meet today with the principals on both sides in the multi-million dollar labor dispute.

On the strike-ravaged Johnstown, Pa., front, 300 state police enforced Governor George H.
E. Kirtland's declaration of a "neutral zone" of martial law and the huge Carnegie Institute of Technology steel, employing 15,000 men, began to shut down under the governor's orders. C. I. O. pickets lined at the plant immediately disappeared.

President Grace bitterly protested the closing order, declaring it signified a breakdown in the power of Pennsylvania authorities to protect employees "in the exercise of their rights to work."

COMPANY SUBMITS
The company, however, yesterday, submitted to the shutdowns, reserving "legal rights" against the action, which Governor Earle said was imperative to preserve peace and avoid bloodshed.

At Warren, O., authorities were apprehensive over the threatening aspect of a back-to-work movement.

An uneasy peace settled down on Youngstown as an aftermath of Saturday's night riot pitted state police against C. I. O. pickets and police guarding the Republic Steel plant.

Reason for the violence was in dispute. Strikers said it started when police ordered a group of women C. I. O. sympathizers away from a picket line. One of the Republic mill, when they refused and John May, district leader of the S. W. C. O. police fired tear gas into their ranks, and there was screaming panic.

"There were many children in that crowd, too, when the shooting started," said Mayo.

VILE NAMES
Captain Charles Richmond of Youngstown police gave this version of the riot.

"The police did nothing to prevent the riot. The pickets advanced at attack on us, calling us vile names and throwing bricks. We did not use tear gas until we were attacked."

"No shots were fired by police at any time during the riot."

Advancing with a roar of shots, the pickets forced police into a railroad underpass. For three hours the struggle continued in the steel-blackened tunnel, and only by the dim light of street lamps.

From encircling hills, came the crack of rifles. Bullets splattered and whizzed. There were several explosions of dynamite. Police sniper cars were used and damaged. One said Richmond was set on fire. Smoke and sparks were hydrants in the vicinity and flooded
the area.

Armored cars were rushed to the scene by Sheriff Ralph Egan. And in their left downtown Youngstown they were saluted with bombs from retired snipers.

A second death as a result of Saturday night's riot pitted battle occurred last night.

The men, who died at a hospital as a result of gunshot wounds in the chest and arm, was James Kerney. There was a C. I. O. picket in his pocket.

The other dead man was John Bogardus. He carried a bag of the steel workers' organizing committee.

PREMIER MADE FREE BURGESS OF ABERDEEN

Old Ceremonies Observed
When Mackenzie King
Is Honored

ABERDEEN, June 21—Two names were added Saturday to Aberdeen's list of freedom—Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King of Canada and Prime Minister Joseph Lyons of Australia.

Saturday afternoon, in the best Aberdeen tradition, Burgess tickets were attached with blue ribbons to their silk hats. Thus adorned, the "youngest burgesses" journeyed from the Music Hall where the freedom of the city was conferred, to County Hall where they were guests of the corporation of Aberdeen at lunch.

The Burgess tickets proclaimed Aberdeen had admitted each of the prime ministers "to free Burgess and guide brother."

MOMENTOUS YEARS
The last 15 have been momentous years," said Lord Provost Watt in conferring the honors. "Canada has emerged with the full status of nationhood," he added. "The Charnock incident was a pointer. The Imperial Conference of 1908, at which Mr. Mackenzie King did more than any other dominant statesman to reconcile conflicting points of view, prepared the way. The statute of Westminster emptied the work."

Mr. King spoke of the ceremony as forging a new link between Aberdeen and Canada, a silver-casket enclosing the certificate of Aberdeen's award would be placed in Laurier House, Ottawa.

NATIONAL POSSESSION
"When my day's work is done it will be left as a national possession to the Dominion of Canada—a symbol of the bond of friendship and freedom has been Scotland's greatest gift to the Dominion," the prime minister said.

He told of his own intimate family connection with Scotland. One of his grandfathers, William King Mackenzie, was from Dundee; the other, John King, from County Aberdeen, he said.

The 1877 rebellion in Canada, in which these men engaged in opposing sides, he said, was a struggle for political freedom. It was not a rebellion initiated in any way to lead to the separation of Upper Canada from the old land.

Both men fought for ideals dear to his heart, Mackenzie King proceeded to say, but he had no part to preserve what he thought would be lost in a crowd and popular instillations.

DUCE CALLS ON WOMEN TO BEAR MORE CHILDREN
ROME, June 21—Premier Mussolini today called upon the women of Italy to fulfill their paired duties as breeders of future generations.

Addressing 40,000 Fascist women in the Stadio dei Mussolini declared Italy's future was in the hands of the Fascist mothers. Rotarians, including a group of Italian women, listened to the 15-minute speech.

"As Italian women and Fascist women have your duties," he told them. "You must be the guardians of the home and the imperious of your politics and love should be clamped on your face. The generations necessary for the defense of the empire are in your hands."

EDMONTONIANS AIR-CONSCIOUS DICKINS SAYS

AIR-CONSCIOUS

Airways Official Declares This City Leads in Aviation

Edmonton is the most "air-conscious" city in Canada, it was stated by C. H. "Punch" Dickens, O.R.E., Winnipeg, superintendent of northern operations for Canadian Airways, who returned here Sunday from a flight to Van-

"People in Edmonton seem to take a keener interest and to be better informed on all air operations, even international aviation, than those in other cities," he said.

Air transportation is progressing rapidly and, if present progress continues, more equipment will be needed in the Edmonton district, he said.

EDMONTON RANKS FIRST

As an air base, Edmonton ranks first in traffic, not excluding Winnipeg, Sioux Lookout and other eastern bases, he said. At some bases more tonnage is transported but flights are shorter and Edmonton leads in ton-miles.

Mr. Dickens will leave Edmonton Wednesday on an inspection of northern mineral fields, coming out by way of Prince Albert, Sask.

ABDICATION CRISIS

LONDON, June 21.—An anonymous donor has given (£250,000 ($1,235,000)) to the empire as a tribute to the way Stanley Baldwin handled the abdication crisis, it was disclosed in the lobbies of the House of Commons today.

The donor said, he wanted to make a "thanks offering" for the ageous, far-seeing and sympathetic handling of a supremely difficult situation, which averted

The money was placed at the disposal of the president for the purpose of "endowing any object best calculated to strengthen still further" the ties that bind the empire.

SHEPPARD HEADS MILK INQUIRY

First meeting of the committee named by Hon. D. R. Mullen, minister of agriculture, to probe the operations of the Canadian milk industry, under the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners, was held at the legislative buildings on Monday.

Rice Sheppard was named as chairman of the committee, while members were David Gough, M. A. Empress, secretary to the committee, W. R. King, M. L. A. for Cochrane, and J. M. Macdonald, M. L. A. for St. John's.

The Monday meeting was for the purpose of completing organizational matters, arriving at a date for the summer camp, and completing the work.

It is expected that the report will be ready for the members after the hearings are completed.

Roadman Leaves Peace River For Yellowknife Bay

PEACE RIVER, June 2.—Harry Weaver, Peace River, has left for Yellowknife Bay, N.W.T., and Mickey Hagen left for the north shore of Great Slave lake on Saturday.

Weaver is in a large auto loaded with commodities which he will use in his business at Yellowknife Bay. His other boat, the Wendy, is being used in fishing around Cameron Bay, will be used for navigation in the future.

Weaver formerly operated his business at Peace River, but transferred his activities into the Northwest Territories when business on the Peace fell off.

Local preparations are underway for the mid-summer sports to be held here on July 1 and 2 and the Peace River is expected to put on a bigger and better sports program than the one conducted during the hard times.

"When you heard him, there was a hesitation about telling you about the only opening I knew of, because Mr. Latimer was at that meeting too. But if you're game, you might try him. Miss Madden—I'm sure she's looking for an artist with just your qualifications. Your work most certainly will please him."

Marcia thanked him briefly not trusting her voice to much talking. Once out on the street, she decided to see Latimer and try to convince him that any man who would publicly blacken a woman's character ould not be trusted too far. Then wearily, she changed her mind, feeling it best to wait until the next day when she might have courage to flaunt her colors more defiantly. At the next corner she paused, for a neat card in the office of Lampkin's photographic studio announced a new exhibit. Feeling the need for the inspiration which good pictures always brought her, she turned in the imposing entrance way and walked over the deep carpets to the salon where dozens of trial and commercial subjects were placed effectively against velvet drapes. When her eyes became accustomed to the light, she noticed two people in the far corner, the girl with her hand poised delicately, almost possessively, on the man's hat sleeve. Studying the face raised so eagerly in rapt attention, she recognized Paula. Almost immediately Sandy turned around.
